Excerpt from Memorial of Archbishop Tache on the School Question: In Answer to a Report of the Committee of the Honorable the Privy Council of Canada Now the, Catholics have no vote in the Council of Public Instruction; consequently they have no chance of making their views accepted or even of opposing any attempt to force them into the greatest difficulties. I regret exceedingly that the Committee of the Privy Council are unable to ascertain that the new law has in any way altered or restricted the mode and manner of examining Teachers. The following remarks may perhaps show more plainly the alterations and restrictions of the new law. Under, the old Ordinance, it was enacted as follows: one half of the Board of examiners shall be nominated by each section of the Board of Education. The Catholic section had therefore the.
