Excerpt: . . . 95, for ease of exposition, we report summary statistics for only the most recent year ( table 2 ) and means for all years ( table 3 ). Our analysis sample includes only 4-year colleges that reported non-zero enrollment and expenditures with at least 20 of the student body undergraduates, following Winston ( 1999 ). In addition, they must have a Carnegie classification and must be located in the 50 U. S. states or 12 Washington DC. Like Winston, we exclude Specialized Schools as well; Appendix I 13 describes these and the other Carnegie classifications. There are missing values for particular data elements in some observations. In addition observations may be missing for a particular school in a particular year for a variety of reasons. Most straightforward is that a college may have failed to return the data in a given year. Colleges have an incentive to provide data, since the...
