Thus saw he, And by the light he saw, must walk: how else Was he to do his part? a man s, with might And main, and not a faintest touch of fear, Sure he was in the hand of God who comes Before and after, with a work to do Which no man helps nor hinders. Thus the man, - So timid when the business was to touch The uncertain order of humanity, Imperil, for a problematic cure Of grievance on the surface, any good l the deep of things, dim yet discernible - This same man, so irresolute before, Show him a true excrescence to cut sheer, A devil s-graft on God s foundation-stock, Then - no complaint of indecision more! He wrenched out the whole canker, root and branch, Deaf to who cried that earth would tumble in At its four comers if he touched a twig.
