Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Suffering and Pain One questions people always ask Why does God let Christians go through pain and suffering? It would be great if our lives on Earth were always good and nothing bad happened. Because of the fall of man from the perfect life in the beginning, we have to endure the same things that all men have to go through. When bad things happen, it is bad, just as it was for Job. He was at the end of his rope and ready to die and be done with life. God uses to bad to create good. I know in my life even things like the end of a job at one place, can feel terrible at the time, but after you get into a new place and find out that the new job is much better than the old, you see it was for the best overall. The key is to have faith that God is doing the best for you. We many times don t thing we...
