Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Remedial and Corrective Instruction in Reading: A Program for the Upper Grades and High School Fourth, the plan of instruction advocated in the book provides for special attention to reading in the seventh grade and in the first year of high school. In school systems organized on the 6-3-3 plan the pupil encounters new types of curricula and new responsibilities in the seventh grade and in the first year of the senior high school. Similarly, in school systems organized on the 8-4 plan the pupil encounters new experiences in the ninth grade. These changes bring increased demands on the reading ability of the pupil at these points. Unless satisfactory guidance in reading is provided, some pupils will develop into serious problems. Although the plan of instruction provides for emphasis on reading at these points, it may be utilized in other grades also.
