Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Lincoln Birthday Service: The Grand Army Hall and Memorial Association of Illinois, Sunday, February 1922, at 2: 30 P. M President Wright: The hour has arrived A for the commencement of our exercises. First, is the invocation by Dr. Sibley. Our Father, we thank Thee for the great memories of other days. We thank Thee for the heritage of this country that belongs to us and to our children. We thank Thee that the founders of this nation came as those who had a sense of conviction and faith in God and of God s destiny for them and for those who should come after them. We thank Thee that in the great time of struggle and of strife in all of this nations early maturity there came the necessity of meeting principle face to face, and it being true, we thank Thee that out of that great struggle there came a rebirth of liberty and an understanding of what is democracy and the true dedication and consecration of freedom. We thank Thee for all the great men who have been as beacon lights along the pathway which civilization has given to men. We thank Thee for the great men of our own nation and especially do we thank Thee, this day, for the one in whose memory we are met here. We thank Thee, that though he was born in so humble a fashion that his very humble birth makes it possible that there is no youth today who can say that he had a harder beginning than did Abraham Lincoln.
