Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Bulb Culture for the Amateur There is no time of the year when flowers are as much appreciated in the garden as in the spring, and there is no time when they are valued as highly indoors as from Christmas until spring; hence, anything that will give abundant bloom and attractive flowers, at a minimum cost, at these seasons, should be exceedingly popular. Bulbs will do this, and lovers of flowers in Canada are planting them in increasing numbers yearly. In order that the members of the Ottawa Horticultural Society, and others also, might have as much information as possible regarding the culture of bulbs, and the best varieties to grow, a Committee was appointed by the Directors of the Society, last winter, to prepare a bulletin on the subject, and after careful preparation, this Committee has much pleasure in presenting the results of its labours. The aim has been to give the information in as practical a form as possible, and it is hoped that members of the Society who follow the directions given will find the results satisfactory. Spring and Winter Flowering Bulbs. From the time when the first bare ground permits the dainty Snowdrop to show its welcome head, until the end of May, when the last of the gorgeous Cottage Tulips close the display of spring bulbs, there is a constant succession of lovely flowers, for closely following the Snowdrops are the Crocuses and Scillas, then the Hyacinths, and Narcissus in great variety. While the varieties of Narcissus are still in their prime, the early Tulips begin to bloom, and these, with their brilliant colour, make a delightful contrast with the...
