The vast majority of inventors (97 %) do not make a penny from their inventions despite their hard work, efforts, time, and expenses. It costs more than a year and a lot of money to develop one patent and it requires more money to maintain the patent during its lifetime. Yet, many inventors will get a nice patent that can be framed and proudly displayed without making a single buck out of it. This book is intended to give inventors, corporations and engineers, a helping hand to explore the systematic techniques and venues that can fulfill every inventor's dream.
