

How to Camp Out (Paperback)

By John M Gould

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Written by US Civil War veteran John Mead Gould and originally published in 1877, How to Camp Out gives excellent insight into how people camped out over a century ago. It shows that people were quite capable of enjoying the outdoors without the benefit of Coleman stoves and lanterns, the L.L. Bean Catalog, an EMS store at the shopping mall or any modern conveniences. How to Camp Out helps us understand that people adapted to their environment and could endure the rigors of the simple life because the rewards were far greater. How to Camp Out contains practical camping advice which is still pertinent to this day, more than 130 years after it was published. This ranges from Don t waste your money buying every new invention. to Wear what you please if it be comfortable and durable: do not mind what people say. When you are camping you have the right to be independent. Civil War re-enactors study this book for the author s hard-won wisdom for on the march and in the encampment during that conflict. Accordingly, we ve recreated...
