Excerpt from Report of the Board of Health of the State of Florida: For the Years 1895 and 1896 It is to be regretted that, in order to give prominence to the revenue cutter patrol system, that it should have been stated that an outbreak of yellow fever in the South was of yearly occurrence, to prevent which the patrol system was inaugurated by revenue cutters cruising at short distances and launches manned by a medical officer with ample outfit of field medical service. To seize upon yellow fever suspects ere they land on an uninhabited part of the coast, and in tent hospitals stamp out the disease. The correspondent, to have completely reached his imaginative t, Should have added, and the patients also, for yellow fever patients so treated in summer, on the coast, would most likely die. These state ments may be characterized as sensational when broadly dis seminated over the wires of the Associated Press, and have done great injury to the cause of rational sanitation, and to the interests of the State of Florida. It has frightened the public...
