Excerpt: . . . sentation, it would be presented to the Society at the next annual meeting. On motion of John A. King, of New York, all the matters referred to the Executive Committee were continued in their hands until the next annual meeting. On motion of Mr. Poore, of Massachusetts, it was Resolved, That a circular, in the name of the Society, be addressed by the Corresponding Secretary to the various Agricultural Boards and Societies in this Republic and in other lands, requesting, if convenient, copies of their reports already published, with an exchange of future publications. The Society then adjourned to meet at 7 P. M. Thursday Evening, Feb. 4th. The Society met pursuant to adjournment, the President in the Chair, who introduced to the Society Professor Mapes, of New Jersey. Professor Mapes then proceeded to deliver an interesting and able Lecture on Fertilizers. The learned Professor was frequently interrupted by applause; and at the conclusion of his remarks was detained for an hour in answering the questions addressed to him by the audience. On motion of Mr. Wheeler, of Massachusetts, the thanks of the Society were voted to the Officers of the Society for the last year, and to the Reporters for the National Intelligencer and for the Associated Press, for their attendance at our meetings, and for their faithful and judicious reports of our transactions. On motion, the thanks of the Society were tendered to Professor James J. Mapes, of New Jersey, for tho able and interesting Lecture delivered this evening,...
