The enemy has demanded a surrender at discretion, otherwise, the garrison are to be put to the sword, if the fort is taken-I have answered the demand with a cannon shot, our flag still waves proudly from the walls. I shall never surrender or retreat. Then, I call on you in the name of Liberty, of patriotism everything dear to the American character, to come to our aid, with all dispatch.I am determined to sustain myself as long as possible die like a soldier who never forgets what is due to his own honor that of his country-Victory or Death. - William B. Travis The names of history s most famous battles still ring in our ears today, their influence immediately understood by all. Marathon lent its name to the world s most famous race, but it also preserved Western civilization during the First Persian War. Saratoga, won by one of the colonists most renowned war heroes before he became his nation s most vile traitor. Hastings ensured the Normans success in England and changed the course of British history. Waterloo, which marked the reshaping of the European continent and Napoleon s doom, has now become part of the English lexicon. In Charles River Editors Greatest Battles in History series, readers can get caught up to speed on history s greatest battles in the time it takes to finish a commute, while learning interesting facts long forgotten...
