

Soldier s Wife: Cotton Fields to Berlin and Tripoli (Paperback)

By Rickey Butch Walker

Bluewater Publishing, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Soldier s Wife is a straightforward biography of Katie Lucille (Lucy) Walker, a devoted wife and mother, who with her children followed her husband Asa (Ace) Francis Walker, Jr. to Alaska, Japan, Guam, Germany, and other faraway places as he served in the military. Living in foreign countries and cultures presented challenges that were nothing like those Lucy had known as a poverty stricken country girl growing up in the foothills of Appalachia. Although she was born in the mist of the Great Depression and grew up during World War II, she never allowed herself to be bogged down by poverty. Lucy was brave enough to leave the confines of a small rural community to live in foreign countries. Dedicated to God, family, and country, Lucy was a strong, self-reliant southern woman who embraced life and faced the trials it presented with courage, faith, and love. Historically, military wives have made contributions and sacrifices that contributed to their husband s success, and Lucy was no exception. As a patriotic American woman, her pivotal role was just as important to her husband and his career...
