Are you concerned about your welfare due to the economic crisis? Do you fear for your safety because of the rising crime rate and threat of terrorist attacks? Are you feeling anxiety over the unstable world situation? Are you dealing with a personal crisis? Or do you simply desire a closer relationship with God? God in the Silence is for anyone needing the encouragement, hope, peace, joy, assurance, and security that only God can give. It is also for those desiring to hear from God and for those desiring to experience God's presence and love in a deeper way. These messages from God for each day of the year are the result of one woman's experience of listening to God in the silence and recording God's messages. Seeking to lay aside her own agenda, quiet her mind and focus on God, and taking seriously His admonition, Be still, and know that I am God, Elsie Bunk began hearing from God in a new way. Along with the joy of hearing God and being reassured of His great love, Elsie found that God delights in our quieting of mind and heart and listening for His voice in the silence. She also found that listening takes time, discipline, and perseverance. Published in connection with Hartline Literary Agency, serving the Christian book community.
