Welsh Constable Evan Evans plumbs the past and present to search for connections between two troubling crimes in the eighth novel in this consistently satisfying mystery series. * Evans has found the most delightful shepherd s cottage. At the moment it s just four stone walls with gaping holes for doors and windows.but what a view! But as Evans attempts to seal the deal, duty calls. A five-year-old has vanished from a seaside caravan park--and Detective Constable Evans must consider all the suspects. There s the child s estranged father, who may want to spirit her back to his native Russia--and the German tourists in a hurry to flee the scene. Evans wonders if the abduction is related to the disappearance of another girl, twenty-five years ago--especially since that girl s relatives have just returned to Wales for a family reunion.
