It has made me more aware of the difficulties faced by ESL students on a daily basis across the curriculum. Year 4 teacher, Lynne Cadenhead, Aberdeen Lots of ideas that should be encompassed in the whole school plan. Key Stage One Coordinator, Susan Hills, who has taught in Durham, Norfolk and North East Lincolnshire in both Independent State schools It helped me to bridge the gap between two cultures. Teacher, British International School, Beijing, China There are increasing numbers of children with little or no English entering English speaking mainstream lessons. This often leaves them with unique frustrations due to limited English language proficiency and disorientation. Teachers often feel unable to cater sufficiently for these new arrivals. Teaching English as an Additional Language Ages 5-11 is designed to support every 5-11 year old child new to the English language who is beginning their education in an English speaking mainstream curriculum. It provides teachers with the tools needed to support young learners survival language needs and help them achieve a smooth transition into their new learning environment. Packed full...
