Excerpt from Essentials in English History (From the Earliest Records to the Present Day) This is the third of the series of Essentials in History, designed for use in secondary schools, and arranged on the system recommended in the Report on the Study of History in Schools by the Committee of the American Historical Association. Dr. Wolfson's book, Essentials in Ancient History, describes the origins of civilization in Egypt and Mesopotamia, the bloom of Greece, the rise of Rome, the spread of Hellenic civilization, and the decay of the Roman Empire. Professor Hardings volume follows with the later medieval and modern European history, from about 800 A. D. to the present time. This present volume is a consecutive account of English history. The fourth and final volume treats of American history. The title Essentials suggests that the authors of all the volumes have addressed themselves to the things which have really been significant and vital in the development of western civilization. Personalities and events, however striking in themselves, which have not had a clear and definite effect in the movement of the world,...
