

The Golden Age by Kenneth Grahame, Fiction, Fairy Tales Folklore, Animals - Dragons, Unicorns Mythical (Hardback)

By Kenneth Grahame

AEGYPAN, 2007. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The question of lions came up, but Charlotte wanted none of it. No, thank you, she said, firmly; you'll be chained up till I'm quite close to you, and then you'll be loose, and you'll tear me in pieces. I know your lions! No, I won't; I swear I won't, protested Edward. I'll be quite a new lion this time, -- something you can't even imagine. . . . * Imagine The Wind in the Willows with real children in place of Kenneth Grahame's storybook animals, and you'll get a picture of this book, Grahame's The Golden Age (1895). It is a story of children in late Victorian England -- a marvel that views the world in ways that would confound the adults around them. Grahame's elegant writing makes The Golden Age a joy to read and reread. He had a wonderful knack for presenting the child's view of the world, and this book brings it to full flower.
