

I Didn't Think You'd Come: The Story of a Warm and Good Hearted Killer and the Woman Who Saved His Life (Paperback)

By Leonard Marks

Outskirts Press, United States, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The Man With The Knife is back. In the sixth of a series of eight novels set in the west in the period just after the Civil War, our hero, a professional killer, con man and pimp and a man whose name changes in every book, for obvious reasons, is on his way to San Francisco, hoping for the good life there and an easy and uneventful trip. Unfortunately for him, but fortunately for us, this is not to be. Gunmen and killers from his past, beautiful and manipulative women and one of the roughest and most deadly mountain men in history cross his path either to help or try to kill him, and that includes the women, and he has only his wits and a fourteen inch double-edged blade to help him. Not much, you'll agree, although he does appear to have a certain amount of skill with the latter. Still and all, everyone else is carrying a gun and some are damn good with them. What chance has he got? Well, he's managed to survive through five books...
