Many successful people in life today can ascribe some of their achievements to the fact that they rode on the shoulders of those who had gone ahead of them. There are people who must put down their shoulders for you to ride on so that salvation can come to your house. Salvation is not just being born again. It is deliverance from sin, poverty, ill health, disfavour. As you go through this book prayerfully, the Lord will connect you to people that matter to your destiny.
