Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The war happened, but only Bobby Booclear remembers it. It lasted less than a day but, in less than six hours, an eleven-year-old boy became a war criminal. In Westchester County, New York. It s that kind of story. And Bobby is, finally, telling his version of what happened on that day, in 1954. In a rousing tale filled with cap guns, spin-the-bottle, flavored ice cubes, water bombs, fireworks and more hammy death scenes than your parents would ever let you watch, when you were little, first-time author Bob Nick Shields re-creates a long-ago summer and the thrill of innocence in a funny and touching fictional account of what it was like to be a kid before every family had a television. Advance praise for The Great Big War: . I will not use the word Salingeresque, which all writing teachers employ any time they read something original about youth and don t know how to categorize it. No, this is Shieldsesque, and no higher compliment can be offered. - Stefan Kanfer, Best-selling author of Tough Without A Gun - The Life and Extraordinary Afterlife Of Humphrey Bogart It s jazz. Bob Nick Shields writes jazz. - Jill Robinson, Best-selling author of Perdido and Bed/Time/Story.
