Sanddiver Books. Paperback. Condition: New. 402 pages. Dimensions: 8.0in. x 5.0in. x 0.9in. Quis Custodiet Ipsos Custodes Who will guard the guards themselves Humanitys Commonwealth won its war with the alien Shrehari Empire seven decades ago. Starships engaged in commerce have replaced the battlecruisers, and much of that commerce flows through free ports established on what was once a disputed frontier. Yet even long after the armistice, the relationship between humans and an unfathomable, easily offended species remains tense. She investigates those in authority - members of the police, the military or government officials. That makes her one of the most disliked if not outright hated cops in the Commonwealth. However, Morrow and her officers are also known as the last of the incorruptibles. Theyre the ones with nothing left to lose, those who are highly skilled at uncovering and prosecuting malfeasance, no matter how powerful or wealthy their suspects might be. It makes them the ideal investigators to satisfy an angry Shrehari government. But soon after Morrow arrives on Aquilonia to establish the truth, she realizes there is something more ominous behind the Shrehari envoys assassination than one of the seven deadly sins that usually motivate violent crimes. Was his murder an act of...
