What excelled all others styles of his reign was aspect of sophistication and refinement which characterize the miniatures, muraqqas produced in Jahangir's atelier. It was based on detailed analytical study of the trends and tendencies patronised by him. Jahangir devoted enough time to the study and enjoyment of painting during his stay at Lahore which became a hub of artistic activity. It was here that most significant manuscripts were illustrated. Many noted artists worked at Lahore kingdom. Lahore became the second capital of the Mughal empire from where radiated art, culture, language and literature throughout India.
