Paperback. Condition: New. 264 pages. In the seventeenth-century Golden Age of Rembrandt and Spinoza. Susanna Worthington, daughter of a royal courtier, first saw her future in a terrifying dream that foretold murder by a man tattooed with serpents. The second time, she was hiding in a dark cabin on a Dutch galleon, desperate to escape a forced betrothal in the chaotic aftermath of the English Civil War. A sudden flash of candlelight revealed the serpents mark on the arm of her would-be rescuer David Winn, a mysterious sea captain who longs to become a physician. So begins a journey that leads Susanna and Winn to Amsterdams Jewish Quarter during the time when Rembrandt painted his most haunting portraits, merchants grew rich on trading exotic luxuries, and modern science was born. When Susanna agrees to model for a Rembrandt portrait, she and Winn will each discover a surprising destiny, and come to know that dreams can be deceiving. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg,OR, La Vergne,TN. Paperback.
