This dictionary contains a guide to English and Spanish pronunciation and grammar, paired with a guide to Catalan pronunciation and grammar, and a dictionary of 2400 of the most commonly used words and phrases. Catalan is an interesting language which is neither Spanish nor French and is spoken by 4 million people primarily along the eastern (Mediterranean) coast of Spain and France. Just when you think aha, this is a lot like Spanish, you'll see a whole group of words that are French, primarily aligned along subjects - Food is French, Love is Spanish kind of things. Barcelona is one of the major cities of Catalonia and there is a strong push for independence from Spain, although the area has been under French domination in the past. Generally the standard of living is higher than other areas in Spain with the overall cost of living comparable to the southern U.S. The people are predominantly Catholic in religion, but like most of the rest of Spain generally secular in their practice of their faith. The Catalonia region is known for the...
