Reviews

A fresh e book with a brand new point of view. It is definitely simplistic but surprises in the fifty percent of your ebook. Its been designed in an extremely basic way and is particularly just soon after i finished reading this ebook where in fact altered me, change the way i really believe.

PUBLIC ART AND ARCHITECTURE IN NEW MEXICO, 1933-1943 (SOFTCOVER) (PAPERBACK)DOWNLOAD

Sunstone Press, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Do you like to go treasure hunting in obvious or out of the way places? Do you like to view fine art in galleries large and small? This book will give you directions to New Mexico s amazing New Deal treasures and to buildings and bridges, murals and sculptures, paintings and people who made them. They are not necessarily in the most obvious places, and yet many are in places that one routinely visits. They have been patiently waiting in our cities, our villages, our parks, rarely witnessed as being treasures. They were constructed perhaps even by your own artistic ancestors. This book is full of clues. Go sleuthing! Growing up in Portales, New Mexico, Kathryn Akers Flynn lived in an area with a New Deal courthouse, a New Deal post office, and New Deal schools. She worked at the local swimming pool and partied in the city park, both built during the Depression era. In high school she was a cheerleader on 1930s football fields for onlookers in Work Progress Administration bleachers and camped out at a nearby Civilian Conservation Corps created park and lake. She never knew any of these structures were fashioned by the New Deal, nor did she notice the New Deal treasures in Salt Lake City while at the University of Utah where she received her Bachelor s Degree or the New Deal structures in Carbondale, Illinois where she earned her Master s Degree at Southern Illinois University. Returning to New Mexico, she had a career in the state health and mental health administration that included directorship of Carrie Tingley Hospital, a New Deal facility with many public art treasures. It wasn t until she became Deputy Secretary...
