My first duty was to wait upon his Excellency the Governor-general Kaptzevitch, to whom I had the pleasure of being known in Kazan. I was received as usual, and every attention and kindness were renewed to me by my old companions. My passports were also renewed, a public order was given for every legal assistance to be rendered me, and I again prepared to start. Omsk appeared, like most places in Siberia, to have undergone a considerable change; for the streets are kept clean, the gaps are all filled up with new houses, public buildings have been erected for many of the chief officers, a cloth manufactory has been established and is already...
