Forgotten Books, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Bulletin of the Harvard Medical School Alumni Association, Vol. 4: The 13th International Physiological Congress; Additions to the Medical School Dormitory; New Hospital Unit at the Massachusetts General; November, 1929 The building of the Dormitory overshadowed every other accomplishment of the Harvard Medical Alumni Association. It has been of immense importance in several directions. Not only has the Dormitory provided the Harvard Medical School with material facilities which were badly needed, but our Dormitory built solely for medical students has started a new epoch in medical education. The success of the Dormitory, apparent to all who cross its threshold, is attested by the fact that now, in the third year, plans for enlargement are completed. The great generosity of Mr. Vanderbilt has provided more money, and ground has already been broken. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
