Alfred Music, 2002. Sheet music. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. Every student will relate to the lyrics of this elementary solo that describes the fun and excitement of recess at school. Playground games such as Red light, Green light , kickball and playing on the swings are all depicted through the words and music. Written in 4/4 time and C position, this piece is also a good study in legato and staccato articulations and tempo changes. This solo will be irresistible to young students whose favorite subject in school is recess!.
