Excerpt: . . . CHAPTER VIII. ROME. 1847 The following Reliques are taken from Mahonys letters from Rome contributed to the Daily News during the first two years of its existence. On closing his correspondence Mahony wrote to Dickens: -- And now, dear Dickens, fare thee well. I have now, during two successive winters, kept you au courant of Roman events: a period which will be ever memorable in the annals of Italy and Europe-- comprising the fag end of an exploded system and the first acts of the man sent from God, whose name was John. But before I conclude, permit me, Carlo mio, to remind you of those lines I sent you ten years ago, and to congratulate you on all you have written since then for the improvement of mankind. During the two years of Mahonys correspondence, which were the opening ones of the present Popes...
