Forgotten Books, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Centennial and Historical Exercises at Jamesburg, N. J. 1876 The establishing, maintaining, and advancing a church of Christ is truly a work of faith and labor of love, calling for much patience as discourage ments meet us, and yet giving occasion for a good hope in our Lord Jesus Christ. This general truth has been abundantly verified in the history of this particular church, and to-day we are simply to remember your work of faith and labor of love, together with that of your to-laborers, many of whom have rested from their labors while their works do follow them. We are not old, even com pared with many churches in this new country of ours; for While we as a nation celebrate our hun dredth anniversary, we are as an infant compared with European and Asiatic nationalities. Though not old, we have yet a history well worth recounting and preserving. Another pen Will prepare and soon give to you the matters of general history relating to this locality, and my duty lies only in the line of religious interests. Those interests began a century or more ago, when David and John Brainerd preached to the Nesamis tribe of Indians in this and neighboring localities. That early religious interest seems never to have been lost. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
