Flowing swiftly along, it foamed and tossed white drops of spray high in the air, rejoicing in the sunshine. Now it sees a great white ship sailing slowly along. Softly it slips under it, then, gliding away, sees it pitch and roll about. A LITTLE WAVE S JOURNEY. 201 Now that it had begun its travels, it was much surprised to find how many curious things lived in the sea, which the ripples and little waves had never noticed before they became one large wave. Looking deep down into the water, it saw pretty flowers, shells, pebbles, little fishes, and many other queer things floating about. Swimming slowly along came a large black whale, blowing a stream of water high in the air. This surprised the wave very much, for it did not know that was the way by which the great creature breathed. A flock of sea birds flapping their white wings flew over the wave, telling it more about the land it so wanted to find. A little fish who always carried a round shell on its back suddenly swam by. Good morning, Mistress Crab, called the wave; let me carry you to the sandy beach to which I am going. The crab was willing, and only stopped to ask some snails to come too. The snails live snug and warm in little houses made of shell, all different colors, --pink and yellow and...
