This book will help to explain why four lyrical letters in the New Testament were hostile using ad hominem abuse with a metaphoric imagery attack upon Paul as the Horse, the Donkey and the mule. Originally, I had only detected three letters of James, Jude and 2 Peter 2nd chapter as being in alliance together like the three Musketeers rebuking Paul for characterizing the law of Moses as a curse upon its observers. After this clue was revealed Revelations imagery of the four horses stood out as a sore thumb or finger on the witness stand pointing at Paul as a culprit. I felt like the Egyptologist Jean Francois Champollion who discovered how to read Hieroglyphics in 1822 when I was able to attach names to their innuendo attacks upon Paul and other Biblical figures. It was an empowering feeling because I have a high curiosity level that must be met like an addict who needs his daily fix. I discovered a pattern when one clue is unlock others that are related will roll into enlightenment too. My book isnt really a theory or a hypothesis because its simple and easy to follow. The general public has always seen the New Testament as being in accord with itself. Thats not the case anymore. When I turn up the volume letting you hear the four Musketeers sing song against Paul you will be able to comprehend two factions irreconcilable differences in the music. Im taking the high note of being neutral and independent reporter playing the record for the ears of the crowd to judge for themselves. I have no bones to pick in this fight. Im confident and satisfied after you...
