Excerpt from Profits From Farm Woods: Money-Making Examples From Southern Farmers Said Robert P. White, a substantial farmer of the red clay hills in the piedmont region of Clarke County, in upper Georgia: There has been little profit in cotton farming since 1920. Our timber has kept my brother, sister, and myself from bankruptcy. Dad used to say to us many times that if we d take care of the timber and keep fires out it would be the best paying part of the farm. A neighbor who was struggling along growing cotton on hillside land was advised by my father many years ago to give it up and let the land grow timber. My father was right as the last decade has fully shown. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
