Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.With an ostentatious flourish Mr. Lucky Broad placed a crisp ten-dollar bill in an eager palm outstretched across his folding-table. The gentleman wins and the gambler loses! Mr. Broad proclaimed to the world. The eye is quicker than the hand, and the dealer s moans is music to the stranger s ear. With practised touch he rearranged the three worn walnut-shells which constituted his stock in trade. Beneath one of them he deftly concealed a pellet about the size of a five-grain allopathic pill. It was the erratic behavior of this tiny ball, its mysterious comings and goings, that had summoned Mr. Broad s audience and now held its observant interest. This audience, composed of roughly dressed men, listened attentively to the seductive monologue which accompanied the dealer s deft manipulations, and was greatly entertained thereby. Three tiny tepees in a row and a little black medicine-man inside. The speaker s voice was high-pitched and it carried like a thirtythirty. You see him walk in, you open the door, and-you double your money. Awfully simple! Simpully awful! What? As I live! The gentleman wins ten more-ten silver-tongued song-birds, ten messengers of mirth-the price of a hard day s toil. Take it, sir, and may it make a better and a stronger man of you. Times are good and I spend my money free. I made it packin grub to Linderman, four bits a pound, but-easy come, easy go. Now then, who s next? You ve seen me work. I couldn t baffle a sore-eyed Siwash with snow-glasses.
