Strangers: A handsome English actor and a young business woman on the run for their lives. Kelly Cochran's late father was accused of embezzlement, causing the financial ruin of many clients. After death threats, she gets away on a South Pacific cruise to consider her options. She thinks she has her life all figured out. She'll save the family business to repay the investors and marry her Mr. Right, her childhood crush and mentor--the wealthy movie producer Robert Hillyard. Everything is going as planned on the cruise until an assassination attempt on her life leaves Kelly in a life-and-death situation with her fiancés associate, Alex Drake. English actor Alex is devastatingly handsome and the most infuriating man she's ever met. He's recently out of a marriage made in Hell and vows never to remarry. The cynical playboy is the last person she'd want to be stranded with alone. Now, in a fish-out-of-water survival game and trying to find their way home, they are dependent on each other for everything, even in the depths of the night. To survive, Kelly and Alex must put aside their differences while their attraction escalates. Unfortunately, the two don't have time to analyze their feelings for...
