By Kaatryn Macmorgan-Douglas

Covenstead Press, United States, 2007. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. Kaatryn MacMorgan s principles of Eclecticism, and those of the UEW Tradition of Wicca, have long been studied by those outside of Wicca, and by Wiccans outside of UEW, as an alternative to the salad-bar take-what-ever-you-like and damn the consequences spirituality offered by much of the New Age, Occult and Pagan community. This monograph serves as a handbook to the ethical practice of Eclecticism, regardless of the faith of the practitioner. To the UEWiccan, this material should be strikingly familiar, but to those outside that community, this book provides an opportunity to study Eclecticism as a valid path within their own religion.
