They served in Artillery, Cavalry, Infantry, Home Guard and Reserve Units. The vast majority of the men were in the many infantry units which were formed in the area. Two cavalry units were formed in the area which joined with other units of Felicianas native General John Simms Scott which was designated as the First Louisiana Cavalry regiment. We have attempted to tell the story of where these Felicianas men and their regiment spent four years of the war. We also have included a roster with service records of the men of both Felicianas units.
