Marigold is 22 years old and has been the companion and sometimes protector of her 18-year-old cousin, Princess Rozabela, since they were children. When Rozabela's carriage entourage is attacked on its way to a neighboring kingdom to prepare for her royal wedding, confident and courageous Marigold takes charge and takes on the role. She pretends to be her cousin and becomes the captive bride of a son of the king of a rival kingdom, even though her life may be forfeit if they learn that she isn't the princess. Toss in a husband who is playing his own dramatic role and Marigold finds herself caught up in an adventure. and a love. she never expected.
