Excerpt from Bryan Among the Peace-Makers; Special: Edited by Hayne Davis; Edition Issued in Connection With the Ovation to Mr. Bryan by Thousands of His Fellow-Countrymen August 30, 1906 HE people are entitled to know what is being done to promote their welfare and the men who are doing it, in order that they may approve the things that pertain to their peace, and support the men who dare to take a stand for the realization of these things. It has been my good fortune to come in touch with leading statesmen who are doing the things that make for the peace of the world. It is my duty to them and to the people to make public the facts which have come to my knowledge. I was present at the great Peace Congress at London on July 23d, 1906, which resulted in a declaration, by over five hundred members of the world's most important Parliaments, in favor of ideas whose adoption by the governments will make peace and justice in international affairs not only a possibility, but a reality.
