Reformation Trust Publishing. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 69 pages. Dimensions: 6.1in. x 4.3in. x 0.4in. When Jesus explained the necessity of the new birth, the Jewish leader Nicodemus asked in astonishment, how can these things be? Some two thousand years later, much confusion still surrounds the term born again, though more people than ever people claim to have had the experience. In this Crucial Questions booklet, Dr. R. C. Sproul cuts through the confusion and carefully explains what it means, biblically and theologically, to be born again. He affirms, first of all, that Jesus wasn't kidding: new birth is essential. Then he goes on to show what the new birth is and how it occurs. His clear teaching will provide understanding for those who are unfamiliar with the new birth and deeper assurance for those who may not know where they stand with God. As a gifted communicator, R. C. Sproul has helped many believers grow in their understanding of such matters as the nature of God, the history of redemption, and the manner in which we are saved. Now Dr. Sproul's lucid teaching on these vital matters is available in a series of concise booklets that are perfect for personal learning and refreshing, as well as small-group study. For a quick introduction to matters at the very core of the Christian life, for yourself or a friend, consider the Crucial Questions booklets from Reformation Trust Publishing.
