

A Labor of Love (Paperback)

By Rev Brian Dore

Xulon Press, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . A Labor of Love is a heartwarming, true story about a young man who was born with cerebral palsy and his family's attempt to give him the highest quality-of-life possible under the circumstances. Your emotions will take a roller coaster ride as you read about the challenges and the triumphs of this family's journey with this special child. You'll experience the simple joys that this family learned not to take for granted, and you will feel the heart ache this family endured as their son faced numerous physical challenges. Through it all you will come to realize the importance that God places upon each life. Every life is significant, and regardless of the circumstances, God has a plan for that life. You will see the valuable lessons learned by the entire family in the process of helping this young man to live life to the fullest. The book is a labor from the heart of a family who realize the magnificent gift that was given to them by the Lord. Through it all God helped them to learn deep appreciation...
