Excerpt: . . . the fossilized remains of those primitive records, is in a position whence to reconstruct the authentic ideal likeness of the Christian Master: the divinenatural, open breathing Chief and Mediator. of mankind is thus enthroned in human view: so may be led to rational observation, in statements that are strictly logical, the system of divinenatural religion and society that was fashioned within the concept of his intelligence. 213. But the earthly manifestation of the Son of Man was but a preliminary phase or state, initiatory to the long subsequent processes of his racial incarnation. It was a prime tenet of faith in the apostolic age, that the Son entered through that earthly manifested phase into, the inner degree, the soul-flesh of mankind; there to indwell and on-work, till he should have fashioned for himself a larger form of earthly manifestation, and thence to demonstrate in a...
