Br-r-r-rub-adub-dub-a-dub-dub-a-dub-dub! What s that? cried Jimmieboy, rising from his pillow on the nursery couch, and looking about him, his eyes wide open with astonishment. What s what? asked mamma, who was sitting near at hand, knitting a pair of socks for a small boy she knew who would shortly want them to keep his feet warm when he went off coasting with his papa. I thought I heard soldiers going by, returned Jimmieboy, climbing up on the window-sill and gazing anxiously up and down the street. There were drums playing. I didn t hear them, said mamma. I guess you imagined it. Better lie down again, Jimmieboy, and rest. You will be very tired when papa gets home, and you know if you are tired you ll have to go to bed instead of taking supper with him, and that would be too bad on his birthday. Is papa really going to have a birthday to-day? queried the little fellow. And a cake with candles in it? Yes, answered mamma. Two cakes with candles on them, I think, she added....
