Rusk, of Texas, on the Mexican War: Delivered in the Senate of the United States, February 17, 1848 Mr President: When this bill was introduced, I had no disposition to trouble the Senate with any remarks; but the discussion has taken a much wider range than I anticipated, having gone into the causes and consequences of the existing war with Mexico. It has been assumed, on one side, that the war was not begun by Mexico, but that it was commenced by the unauthorized and unconstitutional act of the President of the United States. With a view to maintain this position, a new boundary line has been assigned to Texas, the State which I have the honor in part to represent, which is said not to extend to the Rio Grande, its true boundary, as I am prepared to prove, but only to the river Nueces. The assumption, sir, of this position, renders it due to myself, due to the State of Texas, and due to the widows and orphans...
