Mykael demonstrates once again that he is one of the Worlds Most Popular Urban writers. Dirty Doe is a masterstroke of storytelling- a deadly race through real labyrinth of life, all under the watchful eye of Mase; whom happen to be one half of a set a twins that happens to be dealing with a deck of cards with no high spades, and with no winning hands he steps out into the world separated from his other twin Chase, whom ended up in Florida while Mase resided in Georgia. But with two different hands Mase gets deep in the drug game overpowering the game dealing out a helluva payroll paying off crooked cops, bondsmen, business gurus etc, while Chase continuously had run ins with the law doing time for petty beefs. But throughout their lives Mase had constructed a clique that masterminded the city making it into an upscale Drug cartel housing a complex that brought in millions. And with that type of clientele Mase protected his clique to the point of no return, but as it exploded one of Mases Bonds lady brought his brother back into his life. And with all that going on he comes into turn observing Mases work and money. Then his greed shifts in and he wants his own pie, then after meeting Mases girl Ginas brothers things shift and Chase sees his way into the game, but before he can get there a shortstop on the Turnpike derails his intentions, and with the Highway Patrol and the FBI in on the...
