

The Myth of the Fuckbuddy: Love s Fast-Forward Button (Paperback)

By John Faithful Hamer

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .LOVE S FAST-FORWARD BUTTON: It gets me out of the house. That s what my friend s grandmother said when they teased her about her obsession with Bingo Night. The woman s dedication was undeniable. The proof was all up there on her fridge calendar, like some diabolical Master Plan. Every bingo night in the city. Cataloged and accounted for. Complete with directions and estimated travel times. May 15th 7:30 p.m. (basement of St. George s) There s strength in numbers but peace in solitude. Hence the paradox of social life Freud ably described in Civilization and Its Discontents (1930): we need the strength in numbers that comes with social life, but, at one and the same time, social life makes demands upon us that often make us miserable. A species composed of rugged individualists who really didn t need each other would have gone extinct long ago. We re not particularly strong or fast. Like bees and ants, our strength is derived from our amazing ability to work together. But why bother when people can be so annoying? Because we need...
