By Michael Ross

Trafford Publishing. Paperback. Condition: New. 54 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.1in. This story is about a love affair that starts in heaven and continues to be played out on earth. The LDS Church's belief is that a person's Spirit preexists in heaven, and a choice is made in heaven to come to earth and inhabit a human body so as to advance in striving to become more like our Father God. Mike Edwards and Kim Martin met on earth, in a wedding party for each other's best friend: Kim's best friend, Beth Franks, and Mike's best friend, Michael Youngblood. It was the summer of the start of their university senior year, and they all had high hopes for life ahead. With newfound love, Mike and Kim were particularly soaring on the wings of love and invincible in their approach to life and living. I attended her graduation ceremony and saw Kim walk across the platform and receive her diploma, after which I never saw her again. The woman who carved her initials on my heart was gone. Why? It was a long time before I was able to recover from that calamity, if I ever have to this day....
