First, he spoke about the necessity for every saint to be called by the Holy Spirit into his or her specific ministry. Second, he indicated that salvation is by the Lord alone and that He is longsuffering with people because His desire is for them to be saved. Third, he told Timothy that the Lord wants everyone to come to the knowledge of the truth of the gospel so that they can be saved. Fourth, he told Timothy that Jesus performs the role of mediator in reconciling lost and saved sinners to God the Father. When they come to Him by faith, He forever sets them free from the penalty of their sin. Fifth, Paul had wanted to convey to Timothy the proper role of women in public worship services. Of course, the real question with that part of the chapter is whether his Holy Spirit-inspired instructions had been culturally-based or whether they had been actually intended to transcend all cultures. Sixth, he had identified a list of general qualifications for an individual desiring the position of bishop. Seventh, he had identified a similar list for one desiring the position of deacon. Once again, though, it will be important to see how his instructions apply to women. Are only men to be pastors and deacons or had Paul left open those positions for women, too? Eighth, he had wanted to tell Timothy that people would depart from the Faith in the last days. That is something that has been happening ever since he had first penned those words. Ninth, he had wanted to...
