Not illustrated. 1892 Excerpt: . . . PREFACE. A record of the class was prepared by Bacon and printed in 1876. Quite a number of the class failed to receive copies and for this and other reasons it has been thought best to make the following record complete from the time of graduation. To do this the Secretary has used Bacons record freely, copying from it verbatim in many places. He has also been greatly helped by the material which Bacon collected for additions to the record, but never published. Free use has also been made of the Class Record of 71 and 73 where it was necessary and of a Vigintennial Record of 68 Phillips Academy, prepared by Williams of our class. The Necrological Record of graduates of Yale College has also been consulted. To those who answered the Secretarys circular of inquiries promptly and fully, he wishes to express his very grateful acknowledgments. To those who were moved by his second circular and letter, to make answer, he returns his thanks. To those whose sluggish consciences were finally aroused by his third appeal, he extends full forgiveness. The dozen or more who at the eleventh hour and in reply to a fourth letter finally wrote him giving the desired information may be finally saved, but at best will only be fourth division saints. Those who received four requests for information regarding themselves and hardened their hearts as Pharaoh did under his plagues and made no answer, The address and...
